

Fundamentals of Building Services and Safety

Course Overview

An overview of the major systems that support the building operations and functions, including maintenance and safety guidelines.

Who Should Attend

New building management staff or security officers providing building security services.

Course Duration

7 hours, Classroom Facilitation

1 hour, Assessment

Course Outline

The course will cover level-1 Fundamentals of Building Services and Safety

- Concept of major systems within a Building that makes the Building work
- Concept of how these systems are managed, maintained and regulated for safety
- Recognise and name key components of these systems via Pictorial
- Typical faults and the dos and donts with respect to each system
- Differences between residential and commercial building system

Certification Obtained and Conferred by

Certificate of Attendance from NTUC LearningHub

Course Objectives

An overview of the major systems that supports the building operations and function, including maintenance and safety guidelines

How to report fault accurately and providing first level respondent to prevent the situation from worsening while waiting for maintenance team

Pre-requisites

At least a lower secondary educational qualification

Be able to listen and speak in English at WPLN Level 4

Be able to read and write in English at WPLN Level 4

Must be medically fit

No physical impairment or any form of infirmity

Price

Price Type	Without GST	With GST
Course Fee	$ 320.00	$ 342.40

Terms and conditions apply. NTUC LearningHub reserve the right to make changes or improvements to any of the products described in this document without prior notice.

Prices are subject to other LHUB miscellaneous fees.